

Ranger Guided Activities September 2023, Grampians (Gariwerd) National Park

When & Where

Details

Sunday 17th September
9:30am -10:30am

Heatherlie Quarry

Ranger Guided Walk – Heatherlie History

Join a Gariwerd Ranger to hear of the historic significance of Heatherlie Quarry whilst walking amongst the wildflowers. This is an easy 2km return walk and worth a visit!

Tickets are free – follow this link to sign up or follow the QR Code

Tuesday 19th September
9:30am - 10:30am

Deep Lead Nature
Conservation Reserve

Ranger Guided Walk – Wildflower Wander, an introduction into Citizen Science

Join a Gariwerd Ranger to admire, learn about, and enjoy the wildflowers of a significant area outside of the National Park. Meet at the McCann Dam, Deep Lead Nature Conservation Reserve.

Tickets are free – follow this link to sign up or follow the QR Code

Wednesday 20th September
12:30pm- 2:00pm

Mt Rosea Carpark

Ranger Guided Walk/Talk – The Making of the Grampians Peaks Trail

From Mt Rosea Carpark take a short walk (700m) with Parks Victoria Rangers to the Bugiga Hike-in Campground. In this spectacular location, relax over lunch and be immersed in the stories behind the evolution and development of the iconic Grampians Peaks Trail.

Tickets are free – follow this link to sign up or follow the QR Code

Wednesday 27th September
12:30pm – 2:00pm

Cassidy Gap Road
(-37.567524, 142.367748)

Ranger Guided Walk/Talk – The Making of the Grampians Peaks Trail

From the Cassidy Gap Road and Grampians Peaks Trail intersection parking area take a short walk (700m) with Parks Victoria Rangers to the Djardji-djawara Hike-in Campground. In this spectacular location, relax over lunch and be immersed in the stories behind the evolution and development of the iconic Grampians Peaks Trail.

Tickets are free – follow this link to sign up or follow the QR Code

What to bring? Weather appropriate clothing, any flora ID books you already use, charged mobile phone or iPad and a thermos with your preferred hot beverage. These are family activities, if you have any questions, please reach out to Brambuk staff at brambuk@parks.vic.gov.au

